Calcutta, Sept. 10.—Fifty persons were killed or injured and many houses collapsed in the Mymen Singh district of Calcutta when the city was shaken by a severe earthquake at 3:57 a. m. today.
The population of Calcutta rushed to the streets in night attire when the city was shaken. Panic ensued in many parts and the terror among the native population was great.

San Francisco, Calif., Sept. 10.—An epidemic of fever has broken out in Tokio, according to a wireless message from Governor General Leonard Wood who is in the Philippines to the state department, picked up here. Wood urged that a million dollars be placed immediately to the credit of relief committee workers in Japan.

Tokio, Sept. 9.—(NOON)—(Via Radio Grom Isawaki, Japan, Sept. 10)—Japan was shaken at noon today (Sunday) by another sharp earthquake. While it, and a series of similar though perhaps lighter shocks which preceded it during the last few days, added to the terror of the people, it could do little to increase the havoc already wrought.

It was accepted as proof that a vast volcanic upheaval probably the greatest since the Japan isles were thrown up from the sea—is continuing deep down in the earth.

Danger of epidemics of typhoid and dysentery has become grave.

Relief workers are bending every effort to combat disease. Many refugees are going mad as a result of their experiences. Twelve foreign-

SCHOOLS OF COUNTY OPEN FOR FALL TERM

No Estimate Of Enrollment In Rushville Buildings Available
This Afternoon

PUPILS GATHER, DISMISSED

The schools of the county including the Rushville public schools opened their doors this morning for the beginning of the fall term. No estimate of the enrollment in the city schools was available this afternoon as Sept. 11, Scholl did not have reports from all of the buildings.

The pupils assembled in their respective rooms in the Rushville buildings and this morning, received instructions from their teachers regarding books and supplies and were dismissed until Tuesday morning, when school work will begin in earnest. Pupils who had not obtained their books previous to the opening were instructed to be ready for the beginning of classes in the morning.

No reports were received regarding the enrollment in the township schools.

Jackson township pupils returned to school in their own township this morning, after having attended the Rushville schools last year. They will go to the old buildings, which were condemned by the state board of health, until the new consolidated grade school building, now under construction, is completed.

PASTOR IS INVITED BACK

H.W. Hargett Expected to be Returned Here by Indiana Conference

The Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, has been unanimously invited back to the pastorate for another year by the official board of the church, it became known today when the pastor left for Evansville to attend the annual meeting of the Indiana conference.

Dr. John M. Walker of this city, superintendent of the Connorsville district, also went to Evansville for the conference. It is confidently expected here that he will be continued as superintendent for another year.

Lawrence L. Allen will leave Wednesday to attend the conference. It is probable that he will be the only layman from the local congregation attending.

Orange Makes Largest Raise, Combined Rates Mounting From 53 1/2

Three of four townships which have filed their tax levies for 1924 in the county auditor's office since Saturday noon increased their rates over this year.

Posey township is the only one of the four that reduced its rate being sixty cents as compared with sixty-one this year.

Orange township's rate mounted from fifty-three and a half cents to eighty cents, the bulk of the increase being in the special school fund levy, which is for the maintenance of school buildings. The tuition fund, which is raised to pay school teachers, was advanced only one cent.

Rushville township's rate went up only six cents, four of which was on the road tax. The special school levy was raised two cents and the tuition fund rate was reduced one-half cent and the other levies remained the same.

Washington township increased its levy five cents, two cents more going on the road fund and two on the township fund. The special school fund tax was increased eight cents but the tuition fund levy was lowered six, evening up the school taxes.

League of Nations Once More Evades Competency to Deal With Greco-
Italian Imbroglia

(By United Press)
Athens, Sept. 10.—Relations between Greece and Albania are strained as a result of an attempt by the Greek government to fix the blame for the Janina assassination upon Albania.

The Albanian government has communicated with Greek authorities at Epirus forbidding Greeks to enter Albania even if they possess passports.

Greece has demanded that Albania hand over those responsible for the slaying of the Italian commissioners at Janina within five days from last Saturday.

Geneva, Sept. 10.—The league of nations once more evaded the question of its competency to deal with the Greco-Italian imbroglia by adjourning.

While the adjournment ostensibly was voted out of sympathy for Japan, the action was interpreted as a maneuver to prevent dissatisfied delegates from leaving.

OVERLAND TOURING STOLEN

Machine Belonging To William Emsweller Taken In Indianapolis

No trace has been found of an Overland touring car belonging to William Emsweller, 1030 North Morgan street, which was stolen Friday morning from in front of the state house in Indianapolis. Mr. and Mrs. Emsweller had gone to Indianapolis to attend the state fair, and parked their machine for about 30 minutes in front of the capitol and when they returned, it could not be found.

This is the second machine that Mr. Emsweller has suffered the loss of a machine the other one having been stolen about three years ago from the streets of Louisville, Ky. He carried no theft insurance on the former, but the loss on the car stolen Friday will be partially covered by insurance.

ECLIPSE IS VISIBLE HERE

Shadow on Sun's Surface Plainly Seen Shortly After 2:30

The partial eclipse of the sun was plainly visible here shortly after 2:30 o'clock. Dark glasses and smoked glass was much in evidence as scores strained their eyes to get a glimpse of the dark spot on the sun's surface.

The eclipse was expected to be visible here for two hours. The eclipse shadow was cast by the moon, which passed between the sun and the earth.

Clear View Was Promised

San Diego, Calif., Sept. 10.—The sun became visible today at 9:30, two hours before observation of the total eclipse was scheduled to start. Fog cleared and scientists believed they would have clear view of the phenomenon.

BOTH ARE ON THE PROGRAM

Greetings From Other Organizations
As Well As Veterans Of Allied
Nations Are Read

(By United Press)
Michigan City, Sept. 10.—Indiana posts of the American Legion must "build stronger programs for the promulgation of that brand of Americanism we must have in the field," State Commander Faulkner told 750 delegates to the state convention of the order today.

Faulkner coupled this plea with an appeal for more active interest in the care of disabled veterans. These things, he said, constitute the main events the Legion should put on its program for the next year.

State Adjutant Frank H. Henley, in his report, said the Indiana department of the legion was now tenth among the states in membership, advancing from eleventh position since last year. Six new posts have been organized this year, he said. There are 301 posts, with a total membership of 20,000.

Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 10.—A host of Hoosier legionnaires stormed Michigan City today for the annual encampment of the Indiana department of the American Legion.

The thousands of former service men, coming from every city and town in the state, found three strenuous days of business sessions, entertainments, and sports in store for them.

Preparations were made to entertain from 10,000 to 15,000 veterans and their families. "We are going to be disappointed if there are not at least 10,000 here," said Joe Bisee, chairman of the program committee.

Early arrivals Sunday evening found the program committee couldn't wait until morning to start with the celebration. They were hustled off to Washington park for a community sing, led by the famous "Hello Al" band.

The convention was formerly opened at 9 o'clock this morning with a business session in the Trivoli theatre. The Legion men packed the auditorium of the theatre and stood stiffly at attention for the cars failed to work.

PAINTER ROBBED OF $170

Robber Cuts Screen To Gain Admission To Willard Bennet's Room

Willard Bennett, a painter, who lives in upstairs apartments in the Commercial block, over the Mystic theatre, was robbed of $170, a pocket knife and a watch last night or early this morning, according to his report to the police.

A screen in his door was cut, and the thieves ransacked his trousers while he was asleep. When he awakened this morning, his trousers were in the center of the floor with the pockets turned wrong side out. There is no clue to the robbery and the police are handicapped in seeking the identity of the robbers.

CARTHAGE MAN GOES ON TRIAL

Rose C. Small Accused In Three
Counts Of Violating The State
Liquor Laws

ALLEGED FIND OF MOONSHINE

Defense's Alibi Is That Colored Man
Who Had Been Employed By
Small Owned Liquor

Rose C. Small, well known dairyman of Carthage, was on trial today in the circuit court on a grand jury indictment, in which he is charged with violating the state liquor laws, following a raid on his dairy barn, just east of Carthage, last April, when the officers reported finding a quantity of alleged moonshine.

Several talesmen were examined this morning before the selection of twelve men for jury service was made, and the case was expected to be completed this afternoon.

The defendant is charged in the grand jury indictment on three counts, the first being for unlawful possession with purpose of a sale, which count was made void by the decision of the supreme court; the second alleging the barn to be a nuisance, and the third count alleging that the defendant was guilty of transporting liquor.

The state expected to prove by its evidence, according to the opening statement of Gates Ketchum, prosecuting attorney, that the defendant's barn was used as a place of storing and keeping the liquor, and that under the statutes such places were defined as being a nuisance; he also stated that the state would prove that the barn was frequented by people.

John A. Titsworth, one of the attorneys for the defense, stated that the evidence would prove on their side that the frequent visitors were persons coming to the barn after milk, and that the defendant had many milk customers who came to the barn.

The defense's evidence on the finding of the alleged moonshine was expected to be laid to a colored man who had been employed in the barn, and who was said by the attorney to have left with a white woman, about the time the raid was made

RUSH COUNTY GIRL HONORED

Elaine Warrick One Of Three Selected to Attend 1924 Fair School

Miss Elaine Warrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warrick, living north of Rushville, was one of three girls in the home economics department, conducted by Purdue university at the state fair in Indianapolis last week, who was selected by the committee in charge to attend the home economics school at the fair against next year as guests.

Miss Warrick was selected by a Jackson township committee to represent Rush county, there being a representative in the school from each of the 92 counties in the state. She was sent by the Rush County Farm Bureau, which has been sending a Rush county girl to the school each for three years. The county representative is selected from a different township each year.

Miss Warrick's being one of the three honor girls in the school brought distinction to Rush county.

DESTROYERS PILE UP AS CORD WOOD

Pounding Waves Of Pacific Slowly
Breaking Up Seven U. S. Naval
Vessels On Rocks

BETWEEN 20 AND 25 ARE DEAD

Believing Themselves 8 Miles Off
Shore, Destroyers Strike Jagged
Rock In A Fog

(By United Press)

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 10.—The pounding waves of the Pacific are slowly breaking up the seven navy destroyers which piled like cordwood upon the jagged rocks of Point Arguella Saturday night and caused the deaths of between twenty and twenty-five members of the crews. The exact number of sailors drowned cannot be definitely determined.

The sea is running heavy, possibly reflecting with the violence of earthquakes, eruptions and tidal waves from Japan.

Racing full steam ahead at 20 knots through an impenetrable fog, the destroyers Delphi, Young, Chauncey, Woodbury, Fuller, Splee, and Nicholas crashed on the rocks. Running in formation and believing themselves eight miles off shore, the boats piled up like sheep following a leader. Each one steered by the lights of the boat ahead.

They lie today on the treacherous Point Arguella, north of Santa Barbara where they probably will be completely destroyed.

Only one man, the foreman mate named Conroy, of the Delphi, has been officially listed as dead by the navy department. His body has been recovered. Nineteen of the Young have not been found, it is said. They have been listed as missing.

Thirteen seamen received severe injuries, while half a hundred more were cut and bruised during their rescue after swimming through jagged rocks.

More than 500 "gobs" and officers saved from the wrecked hulks have been taken from the wild barren point to San Diego. Half dead from exhaustion, exposure and lack of sleep, they lay sprawled on the floor or on the seats of the 13 train coaches and told their story of their

SPECIAL JUDGE WILL HEAR HERBERT CASE

List Of Five Jurists Submitted For
Selection In Liquor Trial Set
For Wednesday

FRED HINES IN HEADLEE CASE

A special judge will hear the case of the State against Ed Herbert, charged with unlawful manufacture and transportation of liquor, and a list of five judges has been submitted for a selection. The case was set for Wednesday of this week, but the motion for a change of judge will probably delay the case.

The five judges named are Fremont Miller of Franklin, John W. Craig of Greensburg, Fred Hines of Noblesville, William A. Bond of Richmond and Charles Lowe of Lawrenceburg.

Judge Fred Hines of Noblesville has been selected as the judge to try the case against Sylvia Headlee, which was scheduled last week, but delayed on account of the defense asking for the change. The state struck off the names of Judge Craig of Greensburg and Judge Lowe of Lawrenceburg, and the defense struck off Judge Gause of Newcastle and Judge Bond of Richmond, leaving the selection for Judge Hines.

Judge Craig of Greensburg, special judge in the liquor case against Charles Capp Miller, was here this morning and heard arguments on a motion to quash, and he will hear further arguments on the motion on September 22. The case is not set until next Monday.

The divorce suit of Beatrice Dolan against Vern Dolan was not decided Saturday, and the case of May Watkins against Quincy Buckner, one a replevin suit and the other a partition suit, were dismissed by the court on account of the default of the plaintiff.

A WOMAN'S BACK

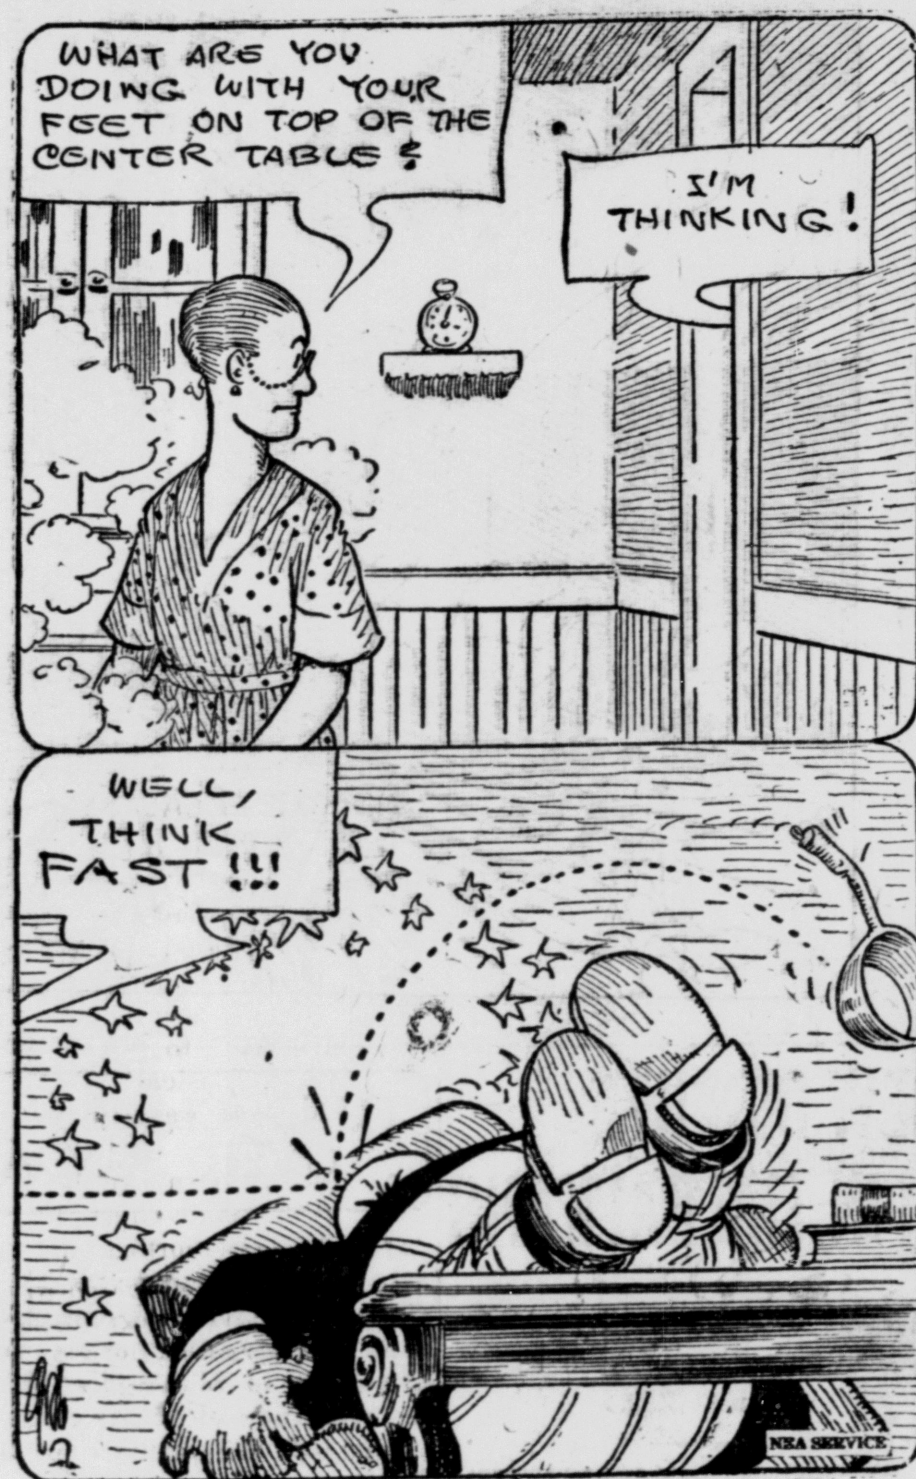

The Advice of This Rushville Woman is of Great Value

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains. Ofttimes 'tis the kidney's fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective. Many Rushville women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. Gertie Sager, N. Sexton St., says: "Some time ago I was in bad shape with my back and kidneys. My back was lame and sore and when I stooped the sharp cutting pains were unbearable. It felt as though someone were piercing me with a knife. My kidneys were weak and felt heavy and dull and they didn't act right. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a couple boxes. They soon rid me of the trouble."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sager had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adver-

Downey has appealed for clemency but it has been refused. Osborne had one more year to serve out his minimum sentence.

He Spent Fortune in Search, Says DePeugh

"I spent a small fortune trying to rid my wife and myself of stomach trouble, but it took the Tanlac treatment to do the work, after all," recently declared George De Peugh, 716 Kirby Ave., Muncie, Indiana.

"My wife's stomach was so bad she couldn't keep down solid foods at all, gas pressed up around her heart, she had headaches and dizzy spells, and seldom slept more than an hour or two at night. She lost weight, and got so weak finally I had to help her get around the house. My own condition was similar, though not so bad.

"Tanlac quickly built up our strength, rid us of stomach troubles entirely, and made us feel like different persons. In fact, it put us back as well as we ever were, and now we wouldn't be without it for a single day. We will always praise Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

The twelve found physical safety for themselves aboard warships in the harbor.

Government and foreign agencies concentrated on immediate efforts to prevent a threatened shortage of food and to restore communications, including telephones and telegraphs.

The people, frightened but not disheartened began to have thoughts of their home from which they fled when first earthquakes and then fire struck their deadly blows.

Osaka, Sept. 10—A story of how 32,000 survivors of the Tokio earthquake were burned alive in a huddled, screaming, struggling mass at Honjo was told today by the lone survivor, nearly crazed who dragged himself to Osaka.

The man told a tale of unparalleled horror of what was probably the worst tragedy of the quake.

"At 3 p. m., on the first day of the earthquake (Saturday), I rushed with thousands of others for an open space of 15 acres near the Ryogoku station in the Honjo district of Tokio," the men, still shaking from fatigue and fright and the delirium through which he had passed, began.

"Army stores formerly were kept in this space, which was surrounded by houses. We thought we would be safe there in the open.

"I was vainly hunting for my parents among the thousands who were milling about, when suddenly I felt a scorching wind from the eastern edge of the open space.

"I noticed that many houses there were burning.

"The flames were driven by the wind into the space where thousands stood, crowded helplessly.

"Screams arose as those about me felt their faces and flesh seared by the fire.

"Everyone tried to make their way to the western side of the compound which was already full. There they were packed in, thirty two thousand of them unable to move further.

"Then flames broke out there and the crowds on the edge were trampled to death. Cries and screams filled the air in deafening profusion.

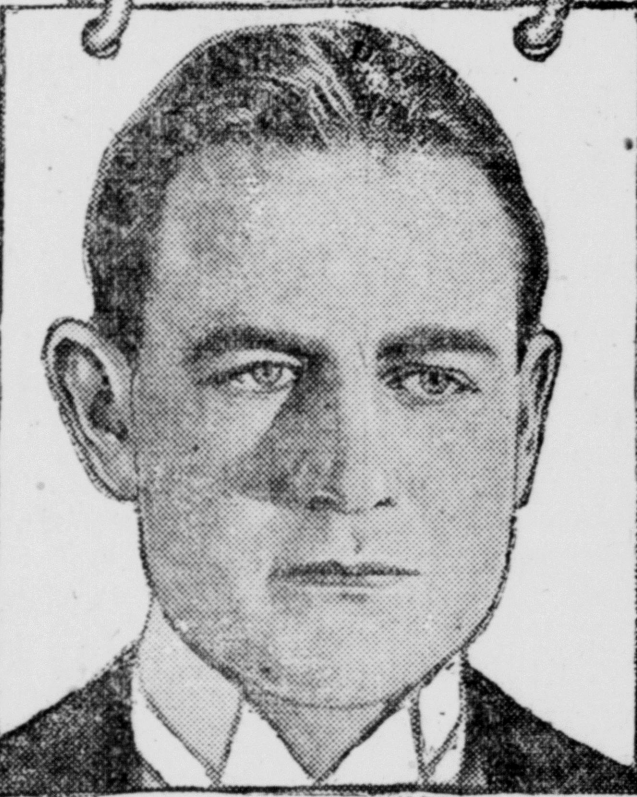

"Then a terrible whirlwind of flames swept the compound, devouring humans as it had the houses.

"I was forced back to the eastern edge, then providentially I reached the edge of a big pool.

"Into this pool I plunged, seizing a thick bed quilt which was swirling in my direction by the high wind. Almost sub-consciously I wrapped myself in this.

"The shrieks of the victims were incessant. Hundreds were being burned alive at each caprice of the winds. The flames approached me and so intense was the heat that my soaked quilt was instantly dried up.

"I jumped again into the pool, which was also drying up, and rolled up and down on the muddy bottom.

"Occasionally the tortured crowd would open and I could catch glimpse of others farther away being burned or trampled to death, the baggage they had brought with them feeding the flames.

"I fell delirious with the heat and sorrows all about me. It was 9 o'clock at night when I recovered consciousness.

"On every side of me were acres of burned bodies. The stench from these was terrible.

"I was the lone survivor among the charred dead. I sought vainly again for my parents and my sisters, but all the bodies looked alike, burned beyond recognition.

"In the morning, I looked again, in vain. Finally, the soldiers got me out, or I could never have done so."

GOD OVER ALL:—The eyes of all wait upon Thee.—Psalm 145: 15.

Where The Shoe Fits

To be fair and just, why should we criticize European nations for settling their disputes by going to war? It's no more than we are doing as individuals right here at home.

A certain class of people decide that they want more pay for their services. Their employers refuse to grant the demand. Then there is a strike—the commercial weapon of warfare—and the fight is on.

Property is destroyed, business suffers, stomachs become empty, sometimes lives are sacrificed, because both sides would rather fight than to submit to unprejudiced arbitration.

There's no league of nations in the American business world, for the amicable settlement of disputes or differences. Instead, there is continual warfare of a devastating kind.

We live in a mighty big glass house over on this side of the water, and the softer we sing the sweeter it will sound.

Banish The War Clouds

One unfortunate result of the gathering war clouds is the fact that they are sending a lot of American millionaires and social climbers scurrying home from Europe. They don't want to get caught where they may have to toddle along in a ration bread line.

It's a beastly shame, that's what it is! They were getting along swimmingly while basking in the radiance of royalties and the elect of the old world. Then, too, we ordinary mortals at home were beginning to thoroughly enjoy their absence.

Those millionaire barnacles are worth money to Europe. They are only an annoyance to us.
Banish the war clouds!

if Germany Had Won

The remarks of Poincare concerning what Germany would have done to France if she had won the war will be read with interest here in America. It is easy to imagine that if Germany had won, she would have called upon the United States to pay to the last penny. And there seems to be some statesmen in the allied countries who are a little disposed to make the United States pay, even though she was the determining factor in the victory.

A Taxpayers' Bonus Next?

Now we are to cure all ills and restore equality by some sort of bonus. The latest proposal is a baby bonus, to be paid to parents who add to the population of the country. We are to have a wheat bonus to make up the loss of the grain growers, a raisin bonus to make up the loss of the raisin growers, and a soldiers bonus to adjust the compensation of those who went to France while others took advantage of the situation to profiteer at home. All else that is needed is a taxpayers' bonus to cover the difference between the taxpayer's income and the amount of his taxes.

The Hodge - Podge
By a Paragrapher with a Soul

Communism in Russia is dead, according to Colonel Haskell, but the state department evidently thinks its soul is still marinating on.

If wheat growers decide to adopt that four-hour work day suggested by an eminent scientist, there won't be any more trouble about dollar wheat.

The fellow who is always looking for a new place to light seldom ever makes a good landing.

A person never gains anything by hurling a brick through his neighbor's window, because we all live in glass houses.

There is nothing in particular the matter with Europe—it's the people who have to live there.

Not all people who speak their minds have much to say.

Truth may be stranger than fiction, but few people like to hear it.

There are said to be 1,500,000 radicals in this country, which leaves about 108,500,000 who ought to be able to make them behave themselves.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Silent Partner"

Did you ever forget your wife's birthday? George Coburn did, in the Paramount picture, "The Silent Partner" which comes to the Princess Theatre today for two days, and it almost cost him his wife.

In the story, Coburn has become a stock spectator against the wishes of his wife, who does not want their financial security jeopardized. He is as agreeable as ever, but so wrapped in complex gambling operations, he has neglected her.

His former employer is in love with Mrs. Coburn, and takes special pains to remember the anniversary, as it seems to her everyone else does.

When George does remember, and telephones home, he is too late, and his wife has accepted an invitation to luncheon with the employer, which comes in a bouquet of American Beauties.

It is a strong temptation which comes to her in the gift of an expensive heart set in diamonds, sent also with the flowers. But she remains true to her own, and returns the present, even though it costs bitter pangs at the thought of her husband's forgetfulness.

A strong cast in this Charles Maigne production is featured by Leatrice Joy as wife, Owen Moore as husband, and Robert Edeson as employer. The supporting players are among the best known artists of the screen.

Tom Mix At Mystic

Billie Dove was a Ziegfeld Follies beauty before divorcing the stage for the screen. For the first time in her picture work her terpsichorean graces are seen as she appears in her mystifying role of "The Masked Dancer" opposite Tom Mix in his new William Fox production, "Soft Boiled," which comes to the Mystic Theatre today and Tuesday.

The scene of her solo dances takes place in a roadhouse, which is run by Tom Mix, in his role of Tom Steele. Tom has to run this place for six months without losing his temper or fighting in order to win the fortune willed him by his uncle.

Tom doesn't know who the "Masked Dancer" is. Furthermore, he isn't interested. Not even when the lights switch off, the spotlight is leveled on the stage and the curtains part to reveal the ravishing form of the mysterious dancer.

Billie pirouettes with dazzling speed and rhythm, and swings into the intricate steps of her dance. The applause of the onlookers in the picture is genuine, for Billie can dance. You can well imagine what happens when Tom discovers who the "Masked Dancer" really is. Inasmuch as Billie's charms and graces are not restricted to dancing, she is an equal match for Tom in the heart conflict that ensues.

Another reason for not having an extra session of Congress is that those who want it cannot agree on what they will do if they get it.

South Bend — "Tommy LaFollette, nephew of Senator Bob LaFollette," one inheritor of the grape told the doubting turnkey here recently. The sobering influence of a cell helped his memory some hours later.

IF YOUR CAR COULD TALK

It would probably tell a story of neglect and improper care. Many cars are run constantly with little or no attention and then when they finally give out there is a big repair bill or the car is junked.

A little attention now and then in our shop by our expert mechanics will keep down your car expense and prolong its life.

NEW REGIME TO OPEN AT INDIANA

State University Has Formidable
Trio of Athletic Heads For The Coming Year

SIXTEEN YEARS A DIRECTOR

Zora Clevenger Comes to I. U. With Record as Athletic Leader in Several Universities

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 10—With the arrival of Zora Clevenger, Bill Ingram, and Leslie Mann, Indiana's formidable trio of athletic heads, a new athletic regime will open here early this month and if the past successes of these men continue, the opening will be an auspicious one.

Clevenger, once reputed to be Indiana's greatest all-around athlete, comes to the Hoosiers as athletic director after sixteen years as coach and athletic administrator at the University of Tennessee, Kansas Agricultural College, Nebraska Wesleyan, and the University of Missouri. During this time he turned out teams with clean titles to the Southern and Missouri Valley Conference championship in football, basketball, and track. At Tennessee, Clevenger turned out three conference champions, at Kansas Agricultural five championship teams, and at Missouri in the last three years one team of champions and another which was the runner-up.

Big Bill Ingram, Indiana's new head football coach, is accustomed to success, too. Individually, he was a star performer at quarterback on the Navy teams and was high point scorer of the country in 1917, followed closely by such men as Olinphant of the Army and Gilroy of Georgetown. The following year he was captain of the Navy's most powerful eleven. Upon graduating from Annapolis, Ingram served as assistant coach to the Middies and in 1920 coached, played, and managed the Pacific Fleet team which defeated all Pacific Coast first rate elevens. Later he coached at William and Mary College where he made a name for himself by firing more than half his team when they broke training. Ingram insists that strict training is the first essential to success in athletics and is going to demand a strict training program at the state university.

Leslie Mann, former member of three Big League pennant winning baseball teams and until recently on the fielding staff of the St. Louis Cardinals, is known to Western Conference sport fans because of the drubbing which Indiana gave the Iowa basketball team last winter. Mann's Indiana quintet was the only conference five to turn this trick in 1922. Mann will assist in football and will probably serve as head coach in basketball and baseball at I. U.

The Cream and Crimson will be virtually a sophomore eleven when the opening whistle blows Oct. 6. Fourteen members of the varsity squad were lost by graduation. Captain "Stew" Butler heads the hold-overs and is expected to alternate at center and guard. Probably only one of is mates from the regular eleven last year will be with him regularly this fall. The freshman team of last year was acknowledged to be superior to that of the varsity, which accounts for the fact, as Bill Ingram has already stated, that nine out of eleven men probably will be recruits from the 1922 freshman squad.

Along with its inexperience, the sophomore team is counted on to put new life into Indiana athletics. In spring practice the youngsters showed gratifying speed and this expected to overcome to a large extent the disadvantage of inexperience. Indiana's weakness this year is conceded to be in its kicking department.

Indiana varsity candidates will include the following: Butler, Springer, and Redman, guards; Wilkens, Kroy, Kinness, Wichterman, and Kidd, ends; Scott Fisher, Espenschied, and Helm, tackles; Frees, center; Sloate, Smith, and Moomaw, backfield men. The sophomores will include the following: George Fisher, Holbliek, and Parsel, tackles; Zaiser, Dykhuizen, Marker, and Cohen, guards; Eller, center; Prueha, Bernoske, Guaker, and Lanman, ends; Zivich, Makrs, Lorber, Zahrobsky, Bilek, Finn, and Harris, backfield men. Probably forty additional candidates will be out for the team.

Indiana's schedule is as follows:

RUSHVILLE CUBS
BRING HOME A WIN

Defeat Indiana Lamp Company at Connersville Sunday, 7 to 4. But
Have One Bad Inning

TALBERT'S PLAY A FEATURE

The Rushville Cubs won a well played game Sunday at Connersville, when they defeated the Indiana Lamp Company team 7 to 4. Warth, pitching for the Cubs, performed well with the exception of the seventh inning, when Connersville scored 3 runs. Robinson started on the mound for Connersville, and pitched good ball until he was relieved by Grant, who was easy for the Cubs. Talbert featured with a diving shoe string catch and with 3 hits out of four trips.

The line-ups were as follows: Connersville, Thomas, 33; Swallow, 2b; Kelly, lf; McNaughton, 1b; Hamilton, rf; Sparks, 2b; Siler, cf, c; Grant, c, p; Robinson, p; Cubs, Wainwright, ss; J. Warth, lf; Lucas 1b; Comella, c; Martin, 3b; Talbert, cf; Mellwain, 2b; Wilson, rf; H. Warth p; Lakin, lf.

Fair Contest

SECOND IN EVENT FOR BOYS

The horseshoe team representing Rush county at the state fair, composed of L. Herman and Raymond Dyer both from the Arlington Athletic club, were tied for third place in the state meet, held at the state fair in Indianapolis last week.

Raymond Dyer, only thirteen years old, entered in the boys class, and was barely nosed out of first place, ending in the second place.

In the doubles, each county played all others entered. Rush county's team won 12 out of 18 games, tying with Hancock and Tippecanoe counties for third place. These three divided third, fourth and fifth money. The total points piled up by the Dyer boys was 738 against their opponents 632.

In the individual contests, neither one played, although Raymond Dyer won five of seven games played in the boys contest. Raymond was leading until the last few minutes, losing first place by only a few points. He was the outstanding player of the meet, winning the applause of spectators at every appearance because of his youth and skill.

The Arlington Athletic club is backing him and other players all comers, next year. This is the second good showing the club has made this year, as the basketball team went to the semi-finals in the amateur tournament held last March.

RUSHVILLE BLANKS

Series, 3 to 0. Yazel Allowing
Only Two Hits

LOCALS COLLECT 9 OFF CRODDY

The Rushville baseball team again blanked the New Salem aggregation here Sunday afternoon, shutting the visitors out by the close score of 3 to 0. On the Sunday before New Salem was defeated 7 to 0, when Yazel pitched a no-hit and no-run game. Yesterday he allowed two scattered hits, while Rushville collected 9 off of Croddy.

Each team played good ball, and both of the games between these two clubs were said to be the best played this year on the local diamonds.

The two teams will probably line-up against each other next Sunday, because of the interest displayed in the games and because of the good brand of ball that they put up against each other. The local team Sunday had three double plays to their credit, and the fielding of each team was remarkable. Each pitcher also had seven strike outs.

Dempsey, Firpo Savage in Ring

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 10—Crowd psychology, which was expected to have such a big influence over Jack Dempsey when he fought Georges Carpentier in Jersey City, and which did not, hardly will be any kind of an important factor in the champion's coming fight with Luis Firpo, the South American giant.

The fight of neither boxer should be affected by the attitude taken or voiced by the spectators. Firpo will not be able to understand any verbal blows that might be tossed at him from the house, and Dempsey will not give a darn if he is given the razz.

In one respect, Dempsey will not be affected by the reception that he is given. If he should get the jeers and hisses that came after he had been presented to the throng in Jersey City, he will fight just the same.

If strange sounds of a monstrous cheer should come to him, he may fight a tremendously better fight.

Since he won the championship by stopping Jess Willard in 1919 at Toledo, nothing but the raucous notes of the razz have been directed at him. Slacker charges resulting from what he did, or didn't do, during the war and the heavy financial demands he exacted for his services have made him intensely unpopular.

Whether this spirit of animosity on the part of the public is just, is beside the point. The fact is that he has been razzed every time he made his appearance in the ring. He was thought so little of by the people around Shelby that the announcer, almost forgot to introduce him after he had devoted several minutes to the glorification of Gibbons.

He was introduced second at Jersey City and after hearing the greatest ovation ever given to a foreign athlete in the United States, he had to stand up under a barrage of boos and jeers when he was introduced as the American defender of the world's championship.

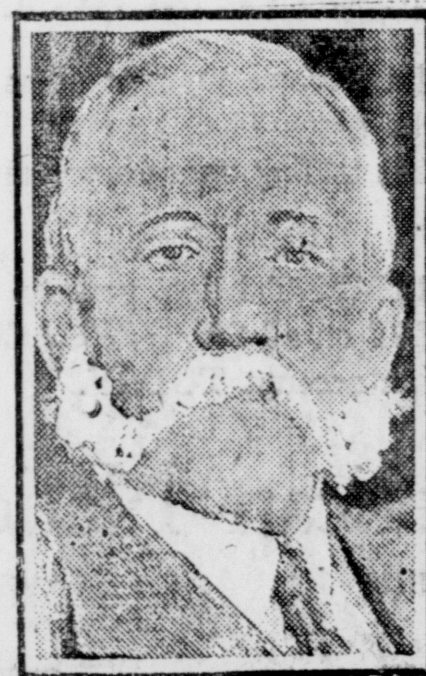

Through it all, Dempsey remained unmoved. Stung terribly as he must have been around the heart, the champion went out and did his stuff and even after winning it was very little of a hand he ever got.

Many followers of boxing believe that Dempsey will be the popular fighter when he appears for his bout with Firpo. The South American has been held up as a penurious individual, out for the money alone. He hasn't the war record that Carpentier had to endear himself to the professional patriots that have been maligning Dempsey and perhaps the crowd will look upon and support Dempsey as the American representative against a foreigner.

After recovering from the shock that would attend a real good reception, if he gets it, Dempsey probably would fight as he never fought before.

Arlington Athletic Club's Football Team Holds Second Practice
And Workout Sunday

FIRST GAME ON SEPTEMBER 30

The Arlington Athletic Club's football team held their second practice and workout Sunday afternoon for two hours on the grounds in Arlington, and the team is now rounding into shape for the opening game, September 30, when the South Paw A. C. club of Indianapolis will be the attraction at Arlington.

Coach Wilcoxon put his team through signal practice and a light scrimmage, and the prospects are bright for a winning aggregation this fall. Much interest is being displayed in football this year around Arlington, as there was a big crowd out yesterday to witness the practice. The South Paw team was formerly the Marion Ramblers. Arlington players will have to exert themselves in order to clean up on the schedule that Manager Clyde Miller has arranged for them.

The following players worked out at practice Sunday: the three Wilcoxon brothers, Updike, Alsop, Lowell and Emerson Headlee, Wicker, Tiershman, Woodruff, Rohm, Kemp, and Winslow. The playing of Wicker and Lowell Headlee was said to be remarkable, and they will land jobs in the back field.

This Afternoon

PUPILS GATHER, DISMISSED

The schools of the county including the Rushville public schools opened their doors this morning for the beginning of the fall term. No estimate of the enrollment in the city schools was available this afternoon as Sept. 11. Scholl did not have reports from all of the buildings.

The pupils assembled in their respective rooms in the Rushville buildings and this morning, received instructions from their teachers regarding books and supplies and were dismissed until Tuesday morning, when school work will begin in earnest. Pupils who had not obtained their books previous to the opening were instructed to be ready for the beginning of classes in the morning.

No reports were received regarding the enrollment in the township schools.

Jackson township pupils returned to school in their own township this morning, after having attended the Rushville schools last year. They will go to the old buildings, which were condemned by the state board of health, until the new consolidated grade school building, now under construction, is completed.

PASTOR IS INVITED BACK

The Rev. H. W. Hargett, pastor of St. Paul's Methodist Episcopal church, has been unanimously invited back to the pastorate for another year by the official board of the church, it became known today when the pastor left for Evansville to attend the annual meeting of the In-

Dr. John M. Walker of this city, superintendent of the Connorsville district, also went to Evansville for the conference. It is confidently expected here that he will be continued as superintendent for another year.

Lawrence L. Allen will leave Wed-is probable that he will be the only layman from the local congregation attending.

Three of four townships which have filed their tax levies for 1924 in the county auditor's office since Sat-over this year.

Posey township is the only one of the four that reduced its rate being sixty cents as compared with sixtyone this year.

Orange township's rate mounted from fifty-three and a half cents to eighty cents, the bulk of the increase being in the special school fund levy, which is for the maintenance of school buildings. The tuition fund, which is raised to pay school teachers, was advanced only one cent.

Rushville township's rate went up only six cents, four of which was on the road tax. The special school levy was raised two cents and the tuition fund rate was reduced one-half cent and the other levies remained the same.

Washington township increased its levy five cents, two cents more going on the road fund and two on the township fund. The special school fund tax was increased eight cents but the tuition fund levy was lowered six, evening up the school taxes.

Athens, Sept. 10.—Relations be-by the Greek government to fix the blame for the Janina assassination upon Albania.

The Albanian government has communicated with Greek authorities at Epirus forbidding Greeks to en-

Greece has demanded that Albania hand over those responsible for the slaying of the Italian commissioner

While the adjournment ostensibly

ECLIPSE IS VISIBLE HERE

a glimpse of the dark spot on the sun's surface.

The eclipse was expected to be vis-earth.

two hours before observation of the total eclipse was scheduled to start.
Fog cleared and scientists believed they would have clear view of the phenomenon.

Greetings From Other Organizations
As Well As Veterans Of Allied
Nations Are Read

(By United Press)
Michigan City, Sept. 10.—Indiana posts of the American Legion must "build stronger programs for the promulgation of that brand of Americanism we must have in the field,"
State Commander Faulkner told 750 delegates to the state convention of the order today.

Faulkner coupled this plea with an appeal for more active interest in the care of disabled veterans.
These things, he said, constitute the main events the Legion should put on its program for the next year.

State Adjutant Frank H. Henley, in his report, said the Indiana department of the legion was now tenth among the states in membership, advancing from eleventh position since last year. Six new posts have been organized this year, he said. There are 301 posts, with a total membership of 20,000.

Michigan City, Ind., Sept. 10.—
A host of Hoosier legionnaires stormed Michigan City today for the annual encampment of the Indiana department of the American Legion.
The thousands of former service men, coming from every city and town in the state, found three strenuous days of business sessions, entertainments, and sports in store for them.

Preparations were made to entertain from 10,000 to 15,000 veterans and their families. "We are going to be disappointed if there are not at least 10,000 here," said Joe Bisbee, chairman of the program committee.

Early arrivals Sunday evening found the program committee couldn't wait until morning to start with the celebration. They were hustled off to Washington park for a community sing, led by the famous
"Hello Al" band.

The convention was formerly opened at 9 o'clock this morning with a business session in the Trivoli theatre. The Legion men packed the auditorium of the theatre and

PAINTER ROBBED OF $170

Robber Cuts Screen To Gain Admission To Willard Bennett's Room

Willard Bennett, a painter, who lives in upstairs apartments in the Commercial block, over the Mystie theatre, was robbed of $170, a poe-ket knife and a watch last night or early this morning, according to his report to the police.

A screen in his door was cut, and the thieves ransacked his trousseau while he was asleep. When he awakened this morning, his trousers were in the center of the floor with the pockets turned wrong side out. There is no clue to the robbery and the police are handicapped in seeking the identity of the robbers.

CARTHAGE MAN GOES ON TRIAL

Rose C. Small Accused In Three
Counts Of Violating The State
Liquor Laws

ALLEGED FIND OF MOONSHINE

Defense's Alibi Is That Colored Man
Who Had Been Employed By
Small Owned Liquor

Rose C. Small, well known dairyman of Carthage, was on trial today in the circuit court on a grand jury indictment, in which he is charged with violating the state liquor laws, following a raid on his dairy barn, just east of Carthage, last April, when the officers reported finding a quantity of alleged moonshine.

Several talesmen were examined this morning before the selection of twelve men for jury service was made, and the case was expected to be completed this afternoon.

The defendant is charged in the grand jury indictment on three counts, the first being for unlawful possession with purpose of a sale, which count was made void by the decision of the supreme court; the second alleging the barn to be a nuisance, and the third count alleging that the defendant was guilty of transporting liquor.

The state expected to prove by its evidence, according to the opening statement of Gates Ketchum, prosecuting attorney, that the defendant's barn was used as a place of storing and keeping the liquor, and that under the statutes such places were defined as being a nuisance; he also stated that the state would prove that the barn was frequented by people.

John A. Tittsworth, one of the attorneys for the defense, stated that the evidence would prove on their side that the frequent visitors were persons coming to the barn after milk, and that the defendant had many milk customers who came to the barn.

The defense's evidence on the finding of the alleged moonshine was expected to be laid to a colored man who had been employed in the barn, and who was said by the attorney to have left with a white woman, about the time the raid was made

RUSH COUNTY GIRL HONORED

Elaine Warrick One of Three Selected to Attend 1924 Fair School

Miss Elaine Warrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Warrick, living north of Rushville, was one of three girls in the home economics department, conducted by Purdue university at the state fair in Indianapolis last week, who was selected by the committee in charge to attend the home economics school at the fair against next year as guests.

Miss Warrick was selected by a Jackson township committee to represent Rush county, there being a representative in the school from each of the 92 counties in the state. She was sent by the Rush County Farm Bureau, which has been sending a Rush county girl to the school each for three years. The county representative is selected from a different township each year.

Miss Warrick's being one of the three honor girls in the school brought distinction to Rush county.

DESTROYERS PILE UP AS CORD WOOD

Pounding Waves Of Pacific Slowly
Breaking Up Seven U. S. Naval
Vessels On Rocks

BETWEEN 20 AND 25 ARE DEAD

Believing Themselves 8 Miles Off
Shore, Destroyers Strike Jagged
Rock In A Fog

(By United Press)

Los Angeles, Calif., Sept. 10.—
The pounding waves of the Pacific are slowly breaking up the seven navy destroyers which piled like cordwood upon the jagged rocks of Point Arguella Saturday night and caused the deaths of between twenty and twenty-five members of the crews.
The exact number of sailors drowned cannot be definitely determined.
The sea is running heavy, possibly reflecting with the violence of earthquakes, eruptions and tidal waves from Japan.

Racing full steam ahead at 20
knots through an impenetrable fog, the destroyers Delphi, Young, Cham-berlay, Woodbury, Fuller, Splice, and Nicholas crashed on the rocks.
Running in formation and believing themselves eight miles off shore, the boats piled up like sheep following a leader. Each one steered by the lights of the boat ahead.

They lie today on the treacherous Point Arguella, north of Santa Barbara where they probably will be completely destroyed.

Only one man, the foreman mate named Conroy, of the Delphi, has been officially listed as dead by the navy department. His body has been recovered. Nineteen of the Young have not been found, it is said. They have been listed as missing.

Thirteen seamen received severe injuries, while half a hundred more were cut and bruised during their rescue after swimming through jagged rocks.

More than 500 "gobs" and officers saved from the wrecked hulks have been taken from the wild barren point to San Diego. Half dead from exhaustion, exposure and lack of sleep, they lay sprawled on the floor or on the seats of the 13 train coaches and told their story of their

SPECIAL JUDGE WILL HEAR HERBERT CASE

List Of Five Jurists Submitted For
Selection In Liquor Trial Set
For Wednesday

FRED HINES IN HEADLEE CASE

A special judge will hear the case of the State against Ed Herbert, charged with unlawful manufacture and transportation of liquor, and a list of five judges has been submitted for a selection. The case was set for Wednesday of this week, but the motion for a change of judge, will probably delay the case.

The five judges named are: Fremont Miller of Franklin, John W.
Craig of Greensburg, Fred Hines of Noblesville, William A. Bond of Richmond and Charles Lowe of Lawrenceburg.

Judge Fred Hines of Noblesville has been selected as the judge to try the case against Sylvia Headlee, which was scheduled last week, but delayed on account of the defense asking for the change. The state struck off the names of Judge Craig of Greensburg and Judge Lowe of Lawrenceburg, and the defense struck off Judge Cause of Newcastle and Judge Bond of Richmond, leaving the selection for Judge Hines.

Judge Craig of Greensburg, special judge in the liquor case against Charles Capp Miller, was here this morning and heard arguments on a motion to quash, and he will hear further arguments on the motion on September 22. The case is not set until next Monday.

The divorce suit of Beatrice Dolan against Vern Dolan was not decided Saturday, and the case of May Watkins against Quincy Bucknes, one a replevin suit and the other a partition suit, were dismissed by the court on account of the default of the plaintiff.

A WOMAN'S BACK

The Advice of This Rushville Woman Is of Great Value

Many a woman's back has many aches and pains. Oftentimes 'tis the kidney's fault. That's why Doan's Kidney Pills are so effective. Many Rushville women know this. Read what one has to say about it: Mrs. Gertrude Sager, N. Sexton St., says: "Some time ago I was in bad shape with my back and kidneys. My back was lame and sore and when I stooped the sharp cutting pains were unbearable. It felt as though someone were piercing me with a knife. My kidneys were weak and felt heavy and dull and they didn't act right. I heard of Doan's Kidney Pills and got a couple boxes. They soon rid me of the trouble." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Sager had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adver-

SENTENCE IS CUT SHORT

Herman Osborne of this city has been granted a commutation of sentence by Governor Warren T. McCray on the recommendation of the state board of pardons.

Osborne, together with Glen Downey, also of this city, was sentenced in the Rush circuit court September 15, 1921 for a term of three to five years in the Indiana reformatory on the charge of vehicle taking. They admitted taking an automobile in which they were riding when arrested near Liberty.

Downey has appealed for clemency but it has been refused. Osborne had one more year to serve out his minimum sentence.

He Spent Fortune in Search, Says DePeugh

"I spent a small fortune trying to rid my wife and myself of stomach trouble, but it took the Tanlac treatment to do the work, after all," recently declared George DePeugh, 716 Kirby Ave., Muncie, Indiana.

"My wife's stomach was so bad she couldn't keep down solid foods at all, gas pressed up around her heart, she had headaches and dizzy spells, and seldom slept more than an hour or two at night. She lost weight, and got so weak finally I had to help her get around the house. My own condition was similar, though not so bad."

"Tanlac quickly built up our strength, rid us of stomach troubles entirely, and made us feel like different persons. In fact, it put us back as well as we ever were, and now we wouldn't be without it for a single day. We will always praise Tanlac."

Tanlac is for sale by all good druggists. Accept no substitute. Over 37-million bottles sold.

Tanlac Vegetable Pills are Nature's own remedy for constipation. For sale everywhere.

ers who escaped from Yokohama are doomed for the mad house. Several are already idiots. These twelve were forced to stand helplessly by and hear and see tortures of five children burning to death.

The twelve found physical safety for themselves aboard warships in the harbor.

Government and foreign agencies concentrated on immediate efforts to prevent a threatened shortage of food and to restore communications, including telephones and telegraphs.

The people, frightened but not disheartened began to have thoughts of their home from which they fled when first earthquakes and then fire struck their deadly blows.

Osaka, Sept. 10—A story of how 32,000 survivors of the Tokio earthquake were burned alive in a huddled, screaming, struggling mass at Honjo was told today by the lone survivor, nearly crazed who dragged himself to Osaka.

The man told a tale of unparalleled horror of what was probably the worst tragedy of the quake.

"At 3 p. m., on the first day of the earthquake (Saturday), I rushed with thousands of others for an open space of 15 acres near the Ryogoku station in the Honjo district of Tokio," the man, still shaking from fatigue and fright and the delirium through which he had passed, began.

"Army stores formerly were kept in this space, which was surrounded by houses. We thought we would be safe there in the open.

"I was vainly hunting for my parents among the thousands who were milling about, when suddenly I felt a scorching wind from the eastern edge of the open space.

"I noticed that many houses there were burning.

"The flames were driven by the wind into the space where thousands stood, crowded helplessly.

"Screams arose as those about me felt their faces and flesh seared by the fire.

"Everyone tried to make their way to the western side of the compound which was already full. There they were packed in, thirty two thousand of them unable to move further.

"Then flames broke out there and the crowds on the edge were trampled to death. Cries and screams filled the air in deafening profusion.

"Then a terrible whirlwind of flames swept the compound, devouring humans as it had the houses.

"I was forced back to the eastern edge, then providentially I reached the edge of a big pool.

"Into this pool I plunged, seizing a thick bed quilt which was swirled in my direction by the high wind. Almost sub-consciously I wrapped

Where The Shoe Fits

To be fair and just, why should we criticize European nations for settling their disputes by going to war? It's no more than we are doing as individuals right here at home.

A certain class of people decide that they want more pay for their services. Their employers refuse to grant the demand. Then there is a strike—the commercial weapon of warfare—and the fight is on.

Property is destroyed, business suffers, stomachs become empty, sometimes lives are sacrificed, because both sides would rather fight than to submit to unprejudiced arbitration.

There's no league of nations in the American business world, for the amicable settlement of disputes or differences. Instead, there is continual warfare of a devastating kind.

We live in a mighty big glass house over on this side of the water, and the softer we sing the sweeter it will sound.

Banish The War Clouds

One unfortunate result of the gathering war clouds is the fact that they are sending a lot of American millionaires and social climbers scurrying home from Europe. They don't want to get caught where they may have to toddle along in a ration bread line.

It's a beastly shame, that's what it is! They were getting along swimmingly while basking in the radiance of royalties and the elect of the old world. Then, too, we ordinary mortals at home were beginning to thoroughly enjoy their absence.

Those millionaire barnacles are worth money to Europe. They are only an annoyance to us.

Banish the war clouds!

If Germany Had Won

The remarks of Poincare concerning what Germany would have done to France if she had won the war will be read with interest here in America. It is easy to imagine that if Germany had won, she would have called upon the United States to pay to the last penny. And there seems to be some statesmen in the allied countries who are a little disposed to make the United States pay, even though she was the determining factor in the victory.

A Taxpayers' Bonus Next?

Now we are to cure all ills and restore equality by some sort of bonus. The latest proposal is a baby bonus, to be paid to parents who are to the population of the country. We are to have a wheat bonus to make up the loss of the grain growers, a raisin bonus to make up the loss of the raisin growers, and a soldiers bonus to adjust the compensation of those who went to France while others took advantage of the situation to profiteer at home. All else that is needed is a taxpayers' bonus to cover the difference between the taxpayer's income and the amount of his taxes.

The Hodge - Podge
By a Paraphraser with a Soul

Communism in Russia is dead, according to Colonel Haskell, but the state department evidently thinks its soul is still marching on.

If wheat growers decide to adopt that four-hour work day suggested by an eminent scientist, there won't be any more trouble about dollar wheat.

The fellow who is always looking for a new place to light seldom ever makes a good landing.

A person never gains anything by hurling a brick through his neighbor's window, because we all live in glass houses.

There is nothing in particular the matter with Europe—it's the people who have to live there.

Not all people who speak their minds have much to say.

Truth may be stranger than fiction, but few people like to hear it.

There are said to be 1,500,000 radicals in this country, which leaves about 108,500,000 who ought to be able to make them behave themselves.

AMUSEMENTS

"The Silent Partner"
Did you ever forget your wife's birthday?

George Coburn did, in the Paramount picture, "The Silent Partner" which comes to the Princess Theatre today for two days, and it almost cost him his wife.

In the story, Coburn has become a stock speculator against the wishes of his wife, who does not want their financial security jeopardized. He is as agreeable as ever, but so wrapped in complex gambling operations, he has neglected her.

His former employer is in love with Mrs. Coburn, and takes special pains to remember the anniversary, as it seems to her everyone else does.

When George does remember, and telephones home, he is too late, and his wife has accepted an invitation to luncheon with the employer, which comes in a bouquet of American Beauties.

It is a strong temptation which comes to her in the gift of an expensive heart set in diamonds, sent also with the flowers. But she remains true to her own, and returns the present, even though it costs bitter pangs at the thought of her husband's forgetfulness.

A strong cast in this Charles Maigne production is featured by Leatrice Joy as wife, Owen Moore as husband, and Robert Edeson as employer. The supporting players are among the best known artists of the screen.

Tom Mix At Mystic

Billie Dove was a Ziegfeld Follies beauty before divorcing the stage for the screen. For the first time in her picture work her terpsichorean graces are seen as she appears in her mystifying role of "The Masked Dancer" opposite Tom Mix in his new William Fox production, "Soft Boiled," which comes to the Mystic Theatre today and Tuesday.

The scene of her solo dances takes place in a roadhouse, which is run by Tom Mix, in his role of Tom Steele. Tom has to run this place for six months without losing his temper or fighting in order to win the fortune willed him by his uncle.

Tom doesn't know who the "Masked Dancer" is. Furthermore, he isn't interested. Not even when the lights switch off, the spotlight is leveled on the stage and the curtains part to reveal the ravishing form of the mysterious dancer.

Billie pirouettes with dazzling speed and rhythm, and swings into the intricate steps of her dance. The applause of the onlookers in the picture is genuine, for Billie can dance. You can well imagine what happens when Tom discovers who the "Masked Dancer" really is. Inasmuch as Billie's charms and graces are not restricted to dancing, she is an equal match for Tom in the heart conflict that ensues.

NEW REGIME TO OPEN AT INDIANA

State University Has Formidable
Trio of Athletic Heads For The Coming Year

SIXTEEN YEARS A DIRECTOR

Zora Cleveland Comes to I. U. With Record as Athletic Leader in Several Universities

Bloomington, Ind., Sept. 10.—With the arrival of Zora Cleveland, Bill Ingram, and Leslie Mann, Indiana's formidable trio of athletic heads, a new athletic regime will open here early this month and if the past successes of these men continue, the opening will be an auspicious one.

Cleveland, once reputed to be Indiana's greatest all-around athlete, comes to the Hoosiers as athletic director after sixteen years as coach and athletic administrator at the University of Tennessee, Kansas Agricultural College, Nebraska Wesleyan, and the University of Missouri. During this time he turned out teams with clean titles to the Southern and Missouri Valley Conference championship in football, basketball, baseball, and track. At Tennessee, Cleveland turned out three conference champions, at Kansas Agricultural five championship teams, and at Missouri in the last three years one team of champions and another which was the runner-up.

Big Bill Ingram, Indiana's new head football coach, is accustomed to success, too. Individually, he was a star performer at quarterback on the Navy teams and was high point scorer of the country in 1917, followed closely by such men as Oliphant of the Army and Gilroy of Georgetown. The following year he was captain of the Navy's most powerful eleven. Upon graduating from Annapolis, Ingram served as assistant coach to the Middies and in 1920 coached, played, and managed the Pacific Fleet team which defeated all Pacific Coast first rate eleven. Later he coached at William and Mary College where he made a name for himself by firing more than half his team when they broke training. Ingram insists that strict training is the first essential to success in athletics and is going to demand a strict training program at the state university.

Leslie Mann, former member of three Big League pennant winning baseball teams and until recently on the fielding staff of the St. Louis Cardinals, is known to Western Conference sport fans because of the drubbing which Indiana gave the Iowa basketball team last winter. Mann's Indiana quintet was the only conference five to turn this trick in 1922. Mann will assist in football and will probably serve as head coach in basketball and baseball at I. U.

The Cream and Crimson will be virtually a sophomore eleven when the opening whistle blows Oct. 6. Fourteen members of the varsity squad were lost by graduation. Captain "Stew" Butler heads the hold-overs and is expected to alternate at center and guard. Probably only one of its mates from the regular eleven last year will be with him regularly this fall. The freshman team of last year was acknowledged to be superior to that of the varsity, which accounts for the fact, as Bill Ingram has already stated, that nine out of eleven men probably will be recruits from the 1922 freshman squad.

Along with its inexperience, the sophomore team is counted on to put new life into Indiana athletics. In spring practice the youngsters showed gratifying speed and this expected to overcome to a large extent the disadvantage of inexperience. Indiana's weakness this year is conceded to be in its kicking department.

Indiana varsity candidates will include the following: Butler, Springer, and Redman, guards; Wilkins, Knay, Kinness, Wichterian, and Kidd, ends; Scott Fisher, Espenschied, and Helm, tackles; Fries, center; Sloate, Smith, and Moomaw, backfield men. The sophomores will include the following: George Fisher, Hollick, and Parsel, tackles; Zaiser, Dykhuisen, Marker, and Cohen, guards; Eller, center; Prucha, Bernoske, Guaker, and Lanman, ends; Zivich, Makrs, Lorber, Zahrobsky, Bilek, Finn, and Harris, backfield men. Probably forty additional candidates will be out for the team.

Indiana's schedule is as follows:

RUSHVILLE CUBS BRING HOME A WIN

Defeat Indiana Camp Company at Connersville Sunday, 7 to 4, But
Have One Bad Inning

TALBERT'S PLAY A FEATURE

The Rushville Cubs won a well played game Sunday at Connersville, when they defeated the Indiana Camp Company team 7 to 4. Warth, pitching for the Cubs, performed well with the exception of the seventh inning, when Connersville scored 3 runs. Robinson started on the mound for Connersville, and pitched good ball until he was relieved by Grant, who was easy for the Cubs. Talbert featured with a diving shoe string catch and with 3 hits out of four trips.

The line-ups were as follows: Connersville, Thomas, 3b; Swallow, 2b; Kelly, 1b; McNaughton, 1b; Hamilton, rf; Sparks, 2b; Siler, cf, c; Grant, c, p; Robinson, p; Cubs, Wainwright, ss; J. Warth, lf; Lucas 1b; Comella, c; Martin, 3b; Talbert, cf; Melwain, 2b; Wilson, rf; H. Warth p; Lakin, lf.

TIES FOR THIRD IN STATE HORSESHOE MEET

Two Members Of Arlington Athletic Club Represent County At State
Fair Contest

SECOND IN EVENT FOR BOYS

The horseshoe team representing Rush county at the state fair, composed of L. Herman and Raymond Dyer both from the Arlington Athletic club, were tied for third place in the state meet, held at the state fair in Indianapolis last week.

Raymond Dyer, only thirteen years old, entered in the boys class, and was barely nosed out of first place, ending in the second place.

In the doubles, each county played all others entered. Rush county's team won 12 out of 18 games, tying with Hancock and Tippecanoe counties for third place. These three divided third, fourth and fifth money. The total points piled up by the Dyer boys was 738 against their opponents 632.

In the individual contests, neither one played, although Raymond Dyer won five of seven games played in the boys contest. Raymond was leading until the last few minutes, losing first place by only a few points. He was the outstanding player of the meet, winning the applause of spectators at every appearance because of his youth and skill.

The Arlington Athletic club is backing him and other players all comers, next year. This is the second good showing the club has made this year, as the basketball team went to the semi-finals in the amateur tournament held last March.

REGIONAL CONFERENCE CALL

RUSHVILLE BLANKS THE NEW SALEM TEAM

Defeats Visitors in Second Game of Series, 3 to 0, Yazel Allowing
Only Two Hits

LOCALS COLLECT 9 OFF CRODDY

The Rushville baseball team again blanked the New Salem aggregation here Sunday afternoon, shutting the visitors out by the close score of 3 to 0. On the Sunday before New Salem was defeated 7 to 0, when Yazel pitched a no-hit and no-run game. Yesterday he allowed two scattered hits, while Rushville collected 9 off of Croddy.

Each team played good ball, and both of the games between these two clubs were said to be the best played this year of the local diamonds. The two teams will probably line-up against each other next Sunday, because of the interest displayed in the games and because of the good brand of ball that they put up against each other. The local team Sunday had three double plays to their credit, and the fielding of each team was remarkable. Each pitcher also had seven strike outs.

Washington —Motorists are allowed to park only ten minutes in the business district of this city.

Dempsey, Firpo Savage in Ring

By HENRY L. FARRELL
(United Press Sports Editor)

New York, Sept. 10.—Crowd psychology, which was expected to have such a big influence over Jack Dempsey when he fought Georges Carpentier in Jersey City, and which did not, hardly will be any kind of an important factor in the champion's coming fight with Luis Firpo, the South American giant.

The fight of neither boxer should be affected by the attitude taken or voiced by the spectators. Firpo will not be able to understand any verbal blows that might be tossed at him from the house, and Dempsey will not give a darn if he is given the razz.

In one respect, Dempsey will not be affected by the reception that he is given. If he should get the jeers and hisses that came after he had been presented to the throng in Jersey City, he will fight just the same. But if strange sounds of a monstrous cheer should come to him, he may fight a tremendously better fight.

Since he won the championship by stopping Jess Willard in 1919 at Toledo, nothing but the raucous notes of the razz have been directed at him. Slacker charges resulting from what he did, or didn't do, during the war and the heavy financial demands he exacted for his services have made him intensely unpopular.

Whether this spirit of animosity on the part of the public is just, is beside the point. The fact is that he has been razzed every time he made his appearance in the ring. He was thought so little of by the people around Shelby that the announcer, almost forgot to introduce him after he had devoted several minutes to the glorification of Gibbons.

He was introduced second at Jersey City and after hearing the greatest ovation ever given to a foreign athlete in the United States, he had to stand up under a barrage of boos and jeers when he was introduced as the American defender of the world's championship.

Through it all, Dempsey remained unmoved. Stung terribly as he must have been around the heart, the champion went out and did his stuff and even after winning it was very little of a hand he ever got.

fighter when he appears for his bout with Firpo. The South American has been held up as a penniless individual, out for the money alone. He hasn't the war record that Carpentier had to endear himself to the professional patriots that have been maligning Dempsey and perhaps the crowd will look upon and support Dempsey as the American representative against a foreigner.

After recovering from the shock that would attend a real good reception, if he gets it, Dempsey probably would fight as he never fought before.

night of story and of the toll taken of their comrades.

The men believe there are twenty dead on the destroyer Young alone. They think their comrades were trapped like rats in the hold of the ship when she went down beneath the surface after the crash.

On the destroyer Delphi, leader of the pack—three men went overboard according to other members of the crew. One was knocked insensible and carried away on a monster comb which raked the vessel fore and aft.

Another, Fireman Pearson, blinded by oil, went insane. Screaming and fighting, he tore himself away from his mates who attempted to hold him down and leaped to his death in the surf.

A third member of the crew lost his grip on the life line and was washed over-board.

After the Delphi struck the rock it was not more than an instant until the Young rammed up behind her and swung over against her side. The Delphi's propeller, still racing, caught the Young in the bow and aided by a big swell, kicked her over. Then the Chauncey piled up.

The commanders of the Chauncey swung up against the Young and the Young's propeller in turn, ripped open her side and lifted her high up on the rocks.

The Nicholas, Woodbury and Fuller rushed up behind within a few seconds. The Splee fought against the running waves but her warning also came too late and she too piled up.

The rapid disappearance of the lights warned eleven other destroyers of the squadron who were following close behind. They escaped. Because of the proximity of the shore, however, they were unable to do much to help the others.

The Young was the death trap of the flock. With her side and bottom ripped open, she keeled over on her side in a minute and thirty seconds. She lay bottom up and it is believed twenty or more men were caught helpless in a compartment on the lower side, under the water. This was reported by a member of her crew who escaped.

Gobs and officers on the Chauncey, only ten feet away, threw life lines over to the Young and saved many members of her crew who otherwise were sure to have drowned or been smashed to death against the rocks.

The bow of the Delphi was piled high in the crash. Her stern was washed around parallel to a huge rock against which she hammered methodically from minute to minute as each wave crashed.

Watching their chance, each time the swell came in, gobs lined the rail and jumped barefooted to the slippery rock. Many lost their hold but were caught by those who had made the leap in safety. Conroy was lost when he attempted to make the leap.

The Delphi broke in two shortly afterwards.

The Nicholas was on a reef further out and along through the night the crew and officers were forced to remain aboard. On account of the darkness and the rocks, neither the life boats nor rafts could be launched with safety.

Seaman Carter was one of the numerous heroes of the disaster. He succeeded in lowering a raft and piloting it through the treacherous surf eighteen times, everytime bringing a group of his ship mates ashore.

Commander Edward Watson of the squadron stuck to his command throughout and directed the rescue work. He finally returned with the last survivors aboard the special train. Hospital officers reported he was near a state of collapse and refused any one to see him or the captains of any other of the ships.

Boatswain Mate Peterson of the Young was one of the outstanding figures in the tragedy. At the risk of his life he leaped in the tumbling sea and swam forty yards through the rocks to the Chauncey and carried a life line.

Over this line seventy of the crew of the Young crawled, hand-over-hand, from the upturned side of the vessel to safety.

Before Peterson's heroic act, the men clinging to the overturned destroyer cheered each other in the face of death, for they all expected to go down any minute.

The survivors began reaching the rocks which formed the bluff of the shore line half an hour after the Delphi struck but the last man was not removed until nearly 18-hours afterward.

The body of Chief Foreman's Mate Conroy was found on the beach a quarter mile from the place where he sank after he failed to make the leap to the rock.

What Can Chiropractic Do for Me

THE answer is simple: If the CAUSE of your trouble is Nerve Pressure and the chances are that it is, Chiropractic Vertebral Adjustments, given by a competent chiropractor with the bare hands alone, will relieve this pressure. The effect of this pressure is to impede the normal flow of Vital Force to all the organs of the body. This then gives rise to another effect, called dis-ease. When the cause is removed the EFFECT disappears; for, without CAUSE, there can be no EFFECT.

¶ If Chiropractic had not really afforded relief to hundreds of thousands of sick and suffering men and women during the last twenty-five years, the Searchlight would long ago have revealed that fact, and Chiropractic would have died by the wayside.

¶ On the contrary, Chiropractic is now STRONGER than it ever was. Publicity has strengthened it instead of weakening it, and above everything else, this wonderful Drugless Health Science is for YOU and YOUR family.

¶ Investigate at once. Do not delay. Every day you delay means that much longer for you to regain your health. Consultation and Spinal Analysis Free.
